INTRODUCTION TO PIPING

The Ligonier Highland Games is offering the first introduction to Piping seminar. This will be a lesson and informative session for people interested in beginning to learn how to play bagpipes. Each session will be approximately 45 minutes to 1 hour in length, presented by Mr. A.G. Lee, Pipe Major for the Seton Hill University Pipe Band, with over 60 years of experience in playing the pipes and 50 years of teaching. Attendees will learn about bagpipes, the history, nomenclature, types and the basics of playing, learning to select the correct equipment and choosing an instructor. Attendees will also get the opportunity to try the practice chanter and an attempt at the actual bagpipes.

Attendance at each session is limited to 12 people, with a session at 10:00AM and 3:00PM. We ask that attendees be at least 10 years old and all people under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult. Please complete and return by email the registration form and please bring a signed copy to the seminar.

If under 18 must be accompanied by parent or guardian.

Choose your session:

Morning Session 10 am

Afternoon Session 3 pm

If my choice of session is full please move me to the other session if room is available.

You will be emailed a receipt of your reservation upon submission of the form.
